

God is Rich in Mercy

CONFERENCE WITH HEALING MASS

St. Joseph's Church

114 High Street
Medford, MA 02155

Saturday, October 15th, 2016
8:30 AM – 3:30 PM

*$25 per person, includes hot lunch
$50 per Family (Husband, Wife, Children)*

Register at St. Joseph's Or St. Francis' Rectory

or mail check to ELRN
P.O. Box 589 Medford, MA 02155

No tickets sold at door, register by October 12

Schedule of Events:

- | | |
|----------|---|
| 8:30 AM | Welcoming Coffee at Social Center |
| 9:00 AM | Opening Talk by Fr. Denis Phaneuf (Church)
Mass of Healing followed by Blessing with Oil
Confession available |
| 12:00 PM | Fatima Rosary in front of Church
Lunch at Social Center |
| 1:15 PM | Talk by Moira Noonan (in Church)
Q & A session, Books, Medals, Religious Articles Available |
| 3:00 PM | Chaplet of Mercy, Enthronement to the Divine Mercy, Closing |

Fr. Denis Phaneuf has been a priest for 50 years in the Diocese of Saskatoon, Saskatchewan. He is a member of the Marian Movement of Priests. He served on the International Fraternity of the Catholic Charismatic Communities under the direction of the Vatican Council of the Laity. He was an advisor on the Vatican consultation on Exorcism and Deliverance Ministry held in Rome.

Moira Noonan was called by Jesus and Mary back into the Catholic faith after being involved in the New Age for over 25 years, as highlighted in the book "Prodigal Daughters" (Ignatius Press) and chronicled in her first book, "Ransomed from Darkness". Moira is a popular international speaker, witnessing and evangelizing at conferences, seminars, seminaries, monasteries, retreat centers, parishes as well as religious television and radio... Moira supports Fr. Denis with personal stories and examples of her life of witnessing to family, friends, and loved ones.